The Yomiuri Shimbun group is an integrated media group centered on The Yomiuri Shimbun, Japan's leading newspaper, and also includes numerous influential companies in such fields as culture, sports, leisure and logistics. About 150 companies and organizations exist under the umbrella of the Yomiuri Shimbun Holdings.

In the business event area, the Group organizes various international events, leveraging the group's Unique Venues and experience content. Utilizing its accumulated know-how, the Yomiuri Shimbun Group continues providing memorable, special moments and inspiring people.

THE YOMIURI SHIMBUN

The Yomiuri Shimbun published its first edition in a small two-story building in 1874 in the Toranomon district of Tokyo. We built a strong nationwide sales network and rapidly expanded. Committed to accurate and prompt reporting and a moderate, sensible editorial line, we grew to be the newspaper with the world's largest circulation. In 1994, the daily circulation of our morning edition topped 10 million copies, cementing our position as Japan's foremost newspaper.

As a news medium, by producing and publishing newspapers for many years, we have fulfilled our social mission of fostering sound public opinion, which underpins democracy. To enable us to steadily continue in this role, we have diversified and strengthened our business platform through businesses beyond newspaper publishing.

As Japan's most trusted media group, the Yomiuri Shimbun Group will continue to be committed to working together with the public.

^{%1}Data of circulation(morning edition) are as of November 2020, other data are as of April 2021.

%2Including Yomiuri Center stores and stores that also carry other newspapers

A wide variety of group companies

The Yomiuri Shimbun is a national newspaper with the largest circulation in the world and about 150 years of history. The Japan News is a daily English-language newspaper published by the Yomiuri Shimbun. Both are also read by many people on the Internet.

The group companies and entities, including the Yomiuri Giants, Yomiuri Land, the Hochi Shimbun, Yomiuri Travel Service, Yomiuri Real Estate, and Yomiuri Nippon Symphony Orchestra, provide a wide range of businesses and social contribution programs.

Nippon Television Holdings, Inc., which has the Nippon Television Network Corporation and BS Nippon Corporation under its umbrella, is also a member of the Yomiuri Shimbun Group with the headquarters of the Yomiuri Shimbun Group as its largest shareholder.

This proposal is presented by the Yomiuri Travel Service, taking charge of the travel agency business within the Yomiuri Shimbun Group on behalf of the group companies.

Please contact the Yomiuri Travel Service for any inquiries and questions related to MICEs utilizing the Yomiuri Shimbun Group and its related companies. It offers one-stop-service from planning and proposals to preparations, event management, and reporting.

TSUMUGU Project -Inheriting the Beauty of Japan-

Find arts that inherit Japan's beauty to the next generations

This project was announced in November 2018 for the purpose of inheriting Japan's arts, including arts and crafts related to the Imperial Household and national treasures and important cultural assets to the future and introduce them to the world in a collaboration between the Agency for Cultural Affairs, Imperial Household Agency and the Yomiuri Shimbun. The Yomiuri Shimbun is actively engaged in holding exhibitions and subsidizing repairs of cultural assets in cooperation with supporting companies. It will continue providing opportunities to find and learn about Japan's unique repairing arts, techniques, and materials and the thoughts of inheriting cultures which help protect and succeed valuable cultural assets to the next generations.

"Action! Dentou-Bunka" Project: Celebrating the Beauty of Traditional Japanese Culture

Experience the delicate, fine artistic techniques and allure of Japan's traditional culture, which continue attracting the world

This is a project by the Yomiuri Shimbun to promote traditional Japanese culture and introduce the allure of Japan's traditional crafts and performing arts. It does not only provide opportunities to associate with Japanese traditional craft artists, including ceramic artists, Urushi (Japanese lacquer) artists, and dyeing and weaving artists but also arrange special stages and workshops for traditional performing arts that include Nho or Bunraku performances and Rakugo. It can also provide special moments such as workshops and dinner parties inviting living natural treasures, lecturers, and guest speakers who have mastered artistic techniques and arts.
